A batch of 73 Students launched under CSR Project for Tool, Mould & Product Design Course

AIPMA's Arvind Mehta Technology & Entrepreneurship Centre (AMTEC) has started skilling project under CSR obligation. In this project AMTEC team has planned to provide upskilling to the students who are from weak financial backgrounds and can't afford to enrol for extra courses apart from normal education. This project will make these students industry ready with the latest technologies and software and will receive placements once they finish off their training.

Under this project, 2 batches of 37 and 36 students each of Plastic Processing Operator trade from Government ITI, Panvel and Government ITI, Ambernath have started their training in the designing. In Tool, Mould & Product Design course they will be learning about UG NX CAD software for 2D sketching & 3D modelling. With this training they will also get certified by AMTEC, Skill India-NSDC & Siemens which will be useful for them in their future career and endeavours.
